

Postgraduate English Language Proficiency Requirements and International English Language Equivalencies

Overview

The University of Auckland (UoA) sets standards for English Language proficiency for admission to the University for international applicants. All international applicants are required to provide satisfactory evidence of their proficiency in English.

This could be an acceptable English language test, such as IELTS or TOEFL, or previous academic study completed in English. The purpose of this document is to outline what will be accepted as satisfactory evidence for this requirement.

Note: Domestic applicants are not included.

1 International Applicants from Majority English Speaking Countries

Passport holders of the countries listed below will satisfy English language proficiency requirements if they have successful tertiary study in the English medium:

- Canada
- Ireland
- Singapore
- United Kingdom
- United States of America

Note: The English language requirement for the Master of Social Work programme can only be met via an IELTS or TOEFL iBT test due to professional registration requirements. If you have completed tertiary study in the English medium but you are not a passport holder of one of the countries listed above please refer to Section 3.2 for further information.

2 English Proficiency Tests

Validity Period - All test results are valid for two years from the date on the test certificate to the start of the UoA programme. Requirements must be met on one test certificate.

Exceptions - Some programmes have higher requirements; for these please refer to the degree specific requirements on page 10.

Minimum Requirements

IELTS (Academic)	Overall score of 6.5 and no bands below 6.0
Internet-based TOEFL (iBT)	Overall score of 90 and a writing score of 21

Approved by Education Committee in June 2021 and effective for applications received on or after 1 August 2021, for commencement in Semester 1 2022 and onwards.

3 Prior Study in English

Validity Period – Prior study in English is valid for two years from the date you completed your previous study to the date you begin your study at UoA

The validity period can be extended to five years with evidence of further study in English, English language work experience, or if you hold a passport from a “predominantly” English-speaking country¹. The decision to extend the validity period to five years will be assessed on a case-by-case basis. Completion of the following qualifications with the required English grade will meet our Postgraduate English Language Proficiency Requirements. Each of these English grades also has an assigned IELTS equivalency. Some of the programmes below only have IELTS equivalency for IELTS 6.5 (no band below 6.0). If you are applying for a programme with a higher IELTS requirement, you will need to sit one of the approved English proficiency tests on page 3.

Note: The English language requirement for the Master of Social Work programme can only be met via an IELTS or TOEFL iBT test due to professional registration requirements.

3.3 Qualifications taught in Offshore Campuses

Some universities offer qualifications from their offshore campuses in multiple locations around the world. Successful completion of qualifications at bachelor degree level or higher from these campuses is acceptable for English Language equivalency for admission to postgraduate studies⁵.

3.4 Graduate Diplomas from New Zealand Universities and Polytechnic Institutions

Applicants must have completed a one-year full-time Graduate Diploma from a New Zealand University, or Polytechnic Institution. Please note that this does not meet the English language requirement for Doctoral programmes.

⁵ At the request of the Board of Graduate Studies, doctoral applicants may be required to supply further evidence of their English language proficiency.

4 Special Cases

4.1 Studies in English Language

Completion of a postgraduate qualification at least one year in duration and in the subject of English language, from a university recognised by UK NARIC⁶ or NOOSR⁷. Note: The same validity period which is stated in Section 3 also applies here.

4.2 Engineering Applicants for the Postgraduate Certificate in Light Metals Reduction Technology

Completion of a bachelor degree or higher within the last 5 years in the English medium with evidence provided;

OR,

At least 3 years work experience in an English-speaking country or workplace where English is the primary language. In this instance a written testimonial will need to be provided by the employer as evidence of the applicant's English proficiency.

4.3 Teaching in English

Experience teaching at a tertiary level in the English medium, for two years or more, in a recognised university where English is the language of instruction. Please refer to the list of acceptable countries in Section 3.2. Note: The same validity period which is stated in Section 3 also applies here.

4.4 Law Applicants from Norway

Applicants from Norway who are applying for postgraduate programmes in law will qualify for admission and English equivalency provided they have obtained a pass (minimum 4) in Vitnemal English.

4.5 The Occupational English Test

The Occupational English Test (OET) will be accepted for all Faculty of Medical and Health Science programmes.

OET Score	IELTS Equivalence
B (or 400 out of 500)	Overall score of 7.5 and no bands below 7.0
C+ (or 300 out of 500)	Overall score of 6.5 and no bands below 6.0

⁶ National Recognition Information Centre - UK

⁷ National Office of Overseas Skills Recognition – Australia

Note: The same validity period which is stated in Section 2 also applies here.

5 English Language Waivers

Applicants who have not met English proficiency through the above standards may, in some circumstances, be granted a waiver. An applicant's eligibility for a waiver to sub-doctoral programmes will be assessed on a case-by-case basis by Applications and Admissions and may require further supporting evidence. All applicants who are awarded a waiver will be required to sit a Diagnostic English Language Needs Assessment (DELNA) no later than two weeks after the start of their first semester. Any recommended enrichment/support must be undertaken. For Doctoral applicants seeking a waiver, a recommendation must be submitted by the Academic Head of the relevant academic unit to the Doctoral Admissions team. All cases will be assessed on a case-by-case basis.

Note: Applicants applying for the Master of Social Work Programme are not eligible for English Language Waivers.

5.1 English Language Waiver Conditions

For a waiver to be considered, an applicant needs a combination of at least two of the following:

- Completion of a bachelor degree from a University, or Polytechnic Institution from a country not listed in Section 3.2. The medium of instruction during this study must have been English and must not have been completed more than 2 years before the beginning of study at UoA.
- Completion of a postgraduate qualification (at least one year in duration), or a bachelor degree from a University, or Polytechnic Institution, from one of the countries listed in Section 3.2. This prior study must have been completed at least 5 years before the start of study at UoA.
- Published research in English where the applicant was the lead researcher and presented in English at conference(s).
- Evidence of extensive work experience in English.

5.2 Marginal Test Scores

Applicants who have not achieved the required scores in an IELTS, TOEFL or PTE Academic test may be considered for an English Language Waiver. To be considered for a marginal test score waiver an applicant must satisfy at least one of the conditions listed in Section 5.1, as well as the score requirement listed below.

IELTS: Where the applicant has submitted an overall IELTS result which is lower than the minimum requirement by 0.5-1.0 point, but the written and reading scores meet the minimum. That is, an IELTS overall speaking or listening score may be lower by 0.5-1.0 point but an IELTS with a low writing or reading score will not be considered.

TOEFL: Where the applicant has submitted an overall TOEFL score (internet- or paper-based test) which is lower than the minimum requirement by up to 2 points, but the written English score meets or exceeds the minimum.

PTE: Where the applicant has submitted an overall PTE result which is lower than the minimum requirement by up to 8 points, but the communicative score meets the minimum.
